

"Consistent Life" Perspective

- I embrace a “consistent ethic of life” philosophy - a commitment to the protection of life on the planet, which is threatened in today's world by war, poverty, environmental degradation & global warming, racism, capital punishment, abortion and euthanasia (aka, the “seamless garment”).
- My votes will be influenced by my consistent ethic of life philosophy, and I will work to promote an understanding of this position.